Teaching methods

Classes will be centered in the discussion of different problems in order to be able to apply the PATH methodology and identify clearly both the theories and intervention methodologies

Evaluation Regimes (General and/or Alternative)

General

Evaluation Elements

(Dates due, weights, minimum required grades)

The evaluation has essentially two components of equal value (50%), i.e., a) a group work (1 up to 5 students) that have to present a report, following the APA rules, where they present either a revision and / or empirical research discussed previously with the teaching staff, and b) and exam with consultation where the students have to answer to a question within a certain amount of space. The students can be requested, at their will, to serve as experimental subjects.

Rules for grade improvement

The students can improve their grades either presenting new group work or answering to new exam

Rules for students having previously failed the course unit *

They can preform the evaluation the following year

Requirements on attendance and punctuality

2/3 of the classes are obligatory.

Rules for special students

(workers, elite athletes, student body leaders, military, fathers/mothers, with special needs) *

Language of instruction

Portuguese and English.
